

VISION OF THE GREATEST VERSION OF YOU

The reason why I selected the title the “greatest version of you” to explain this aspect of yourself is because it holds a very simple truth that everybody understands—we all know that we have the power to give things our “best.” We inherently understand this when we operate as our greatest self. In fact, at this point, anytime you’re not operating as the “greatest version of you,” you’re probably consciously resting or relaxing into the realities of the “new you.” Thus, whether coming from a place of pain, improvement, or achievement, we all know where we stand in relation to how close we are to our greatness. It’s an amazing standard to take a look at your life and to consistently judge it against what’s possible as the “greatest version of you.”

Launched into this space of faith and growth, the “greatest version of you” will always find its natural resting place. You will always find your natural home, and you will come to know a sense of peaceful fulfillment that comes with that. Beyond the abyss of your greatest challenge, you are in a powerful, solution-driven universe. Acknowledge your own faith and certainty and then use these pivotal tools to reinforce the truth that you already know deep inside—the “greatest version of you” is capable of soaring where nobody else waits, where nobody else dares to go, and were nobody else even believes is possible.

This one is very simple. It combines much of the new knowledge that you have. What is your “towards” vision, with a high EIM, at a Level 10 Truth... about who you now claim to be? It can be overall, or it can be specifically geared to a piece of your life like your health, love, money, passion, or work. When you heard, “Table for Three, Please,” did you have a distinct Ah-ha! moment – Did you realize there’s an Old You, a New You, and a Greatest Version of You? If you were to articulate the Old You vision, what would that have been?

If I had asked you to do the vision of the New You, how would it have changed?

Now that you have that vision... I asked you earlier, as the New You, were you vibrating with excitement?! Now... feel this vision of you! Isn't the adrenaline really flowing now? Oh my goodness, I wish I could be sitting with you now as this whole new vista opens up! Breathe! Breathe in the Greatest Version of You! So we need to begin to work this pattern immediately! Here are some questions designed to help you to continue to evolve you – your plans – and the actions that you must take to cement in the Greatest Version of You! Please, give this a Level 10 effort! Your new Greatest Version of You plan will have SMART components to it. Take the top five things that you want (perhaps you can use the ones listed in your top five 12-month goals from your MO W, or maybe as the Greatest Version of You, you have already decided to accelerate your desires!) and write a detailed plan for each. What does that look like? What components do you need for you to be successful? The pattern of the Greatest Version of You was pattern of great thoughts, pattern of great emotions, pattern of great actions.
